From the Director of Charity

Dear Members,

Who does not enjoy to rest under cozy warm blankets above all in a stormy winter night or to cuddle in a soft big towel after a refreshing hot shower? Well, for some of the women who find refuge at the Home of the Sparrow that is a luxury that they have never experienced. But now a minivan full to the brim of comforters, sheets and towels has been delivered to the shelter among the oh... and ah... of the ladies that are in charge of the house. And all the toiletries that you have collected on your trips make cute little presents, very much appreciated by the house guests.

With your help we have made their lives a bit brighter. So, once more on behalf of the Home of the Sparrow and of IWCP Board, I would like to thank you very much for your big generosity.

Roasted Beet and Orange Salad Recipe
(Makes 8 servings) Submitted by Ilse Farrell

8 beets , 40 orange segments, ½ cup red onion julienne, ½ cup walnuts, 1 cup crumbled goat cheese, Lettuce

Dressing: 5 Tbsps. olive oil, 2 Tbsps. red wine vinegar, 2 Tbsps. lemon juice, salt to taste, pinch of cayenne

Heat oven to 375 degrees. Place beets in baking dish, add about ¼ cup water and cover tightly with aluminum foil. Roast the beets till tender, about 20 minutes. Let cool slightly, then slip off skins. Cut beets in quarters.* Blend ingredients for dressing and toss with beets while still warm.
Divide the beets in to 8 portions and plate over lettuce each with 5 orange segments, 1 Tbsp. of onion julienne, walnuts and crumbled cheese. *I like to peel my beets, quarter them, toss with just a bit of olive oil then bake uncovered.

Note: for citrus segments, cut away both ends of the fruit. Using sharp paring knife, follow curve of fruit and cut away the skin, pith and membrane, suing flesh only. (This is a bit tedious, but nice addition to the beets I.F.)
