Highlight: Neue Galerie, New York City

on Wednesday, April 26, 2017,

you are invited to a very special excursion to the Neue Galerie in New York City where we are scheduled for a private viewing of the first retrospective in the United States of the Russian born expressionist painter Alexei Jawlensky (1864-1941)

Jawlensky moved to Munich in 1896, where he became an integral member of the artistic avant-garde that advanced important developments in Expressionism and Abstraction. The exhibition will include approximately 75 paintings, ranging in date from 1900 to 1937 and will explore the chronological and thematic development of Jawlensky’s work. It is comprised of loans from public and private collections worldwide.

Price: $120 per person (includes transportation, docents, lunch, snacks and wine on the bus, as well as tips and gratuities.)

Checks should be made payable to IWCP and mailed to Esther Gerhard, by April 5. The excursion is open to spouses and friends.

Visit of the Eastern State Penitentiary

April 11 (Tuesday), 11am
2027 Fairmount Avenue, Philadelphia PA 19130
Unmetered street parking; there is also a paid municipal lot next to the building.

When it was opened in 1829, Eastern State Penitentiary soon became the most famous and expensive prison in the world. Today, most of it is in ruins, a haunting world of crumbling cell blocks and empty guard towers. Known for its grand architecture and strict discipline, this was the world’s first true “penitentiary”, a prison designed to inspire penitence, or true regret, in the hearts of its inmates.

Admission: $14, $12 for seniors - paid at the door.
Guided tours available for groups of 15 persons or more.
Lunch following the visit at Jack’s Firehouse (paid individually)
2130 Fairmount Ave, across the street from the Penitentiary

RSVP by April 11 to Annette Meertz by email: annette.meertz@gmail.com or phone: 610-220-2663.
